Research Dissemination and Discourses

Seminar Penelitian Arsitektur dan Publikasi Ilmiah Arsitektur
Dr. Johannes Widodo
ITB – Departemen Arsitektur
Bandung, 15 Juni 2006

My belief

- History is a layering process, not a linear succession of events
- The city is a repository of cumulative memory of its inhabitants along time
- Architecture is a unique manifestation and materialization of culture and identity
- Memory and morphology are transferred through trade and migration, and transplanted into new landscapes, creating a new hybrid material culture in different scale levels

Background

- Family
- Socio-Economic-Political environment
- Education
- Teachers
- Readings
- Interests
- Purpose/mission

Asian Architecture

- Fusion, interweaving, hybridization, mix
- On different scale levels:
  - Settlement
  - Building
  - Element
- As integrated layers:
  - Morphologic (form, structure, pattern, materiality, articulation)
  - Sociologic (function, appropriation, inhabitation)
  - Symbolic (meaning, belief, values)
Basic Steps:

- Having interesting idea or specific issue
- Collecting basic preliminary information (maps, pictures, text, interview ….)
- Drafting first hypothesis
- Visiting site (walking through space, mental-spatial reconstruction of architectural layers …)
- Rewriting hypothesis, producing model drawings
- Collecting more information
- Comparative reading (cross/inter-disciplinary texts)
- Analysis (Synchronic & Diachronic reading of architectural layers on different scale levels through historical periods)
- Writing, presenting, iterating …….

Conference

- Medieval Latin conferentia, from Latin conferens, conferent- present participle of conferre, to bring together
- A meeting for consultation, deliberation, discussion, or interchange of opinions
- A discussion among participants who have an agreed (serious) topic

Congress

- Middle English congresse, body of attendants, from Latin congressus meeting, encounter, from congredeil to approach, meet.
- A formal assembly of representatives, as of various nations, to discuss problems.
- The act of coming together or meeting.
- 1: the legislature of the United States government 2: a meeting of elected or appointed representatives 3: a national legislative assembly 4: the act of sexual procreation between a man and a woman; the man’s penis is inserted into the woman’s vagina and excited until orgasm and ejaculation occur

Seminar

- German, from Latin seminarium, seed plot
- 1: any meeting for an exchange of ideas 2: a course offered for a small group of advanced students
- A small group of advanced students in a college or graduate school engaged in original research or intensive study under the guidance of a professor who meets regularly with them to discuss their reports and findings.
- A meeting for an exchange of ideas; a conference.
Workshop

- An educational seminar or series of meetings emphasizing interaction and exchange of information among a usually small number of participants: a creative writing workshop.
- A brief intensive course for a small group; emphasizes problem solving

Symposium

- Latin, drinking party, from Greek sumposion: sun-, syn- + posis, drinking
- A convivial meeting for drinking, music, and intellectual discussion among the ancient Greeks.
- A meeting or conference for discussion of a topic, especially one in which the participants form an audience and make presentations.
- A collection of writings on a particular topic, as in a magazine.

Forum

- A place of assembly for the people in ancient Greece
- The public square or marketplace of an ancient Roman city that was the assembly place for judicial activity and public business.
